

Training Course German Language – Level 3

Course Language German

Course Duration Total Number of hours : 42

Course Key Topic Area Includes:

Course System is based on the six levels defined in the “Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).” The language skills students acquire in this course are internationally comparable.

The Objectives reflect the latest methods in the science of teaching and learning - are diverse and communicative. Four language skills will be practiced: Speaking, listening, reading and writing.

In this course students will acquire more advanced structures and communicative skills in the German language.

They will gain the ability to express themselves about their desires and intentions, in everyday situations such as work-life, traveling, general orientation, relationships, health, culture through a further knowledge of vocabulary, stylistics – sentence structures.

Topics:

Profession and family - Living situations - Housing – Tourism, Traveling experiences – Household – Breakfast habits – Private invitations - At the Restaurant – Profession, Job – Sport and Fitness - Healthy lifestyle – Studying and career - Education system - Work-life – Celebrations and gifts – Wedding customs

Grammar/Structures:

Conjunctions – Perfect tense of separable and irregular verbs – Prepositions and verbs with Dative and Accusative – Adverbs – Indefinite pronouns in Nominative and Accusative – Subjunctive 2 – Names in Genitive – Conjunctions – Reflexive verbs – Past preterit of modal verbs – Dative as Object – Position of the Objects

At the end of the program the trainees will be able to:

- Communicate in a simple and routine way of using the language, they can exchange information on familiar and routine matters such as family, friends, free time.
- Specify location, direction – read and write messages
- Manage very short basic social exchanges, arrange appointments, relocate to a new place.
- Talk about the Breakfast habits
- In restaurant: order food, drinks, talk about likes and dislikes
- Have a phone conversation at work
- Respond to invitations, suggestions and apologies.
- Express feelings and interest – Give advises for the healthy lifestyle
- Understand an interview
- Can write short simple texts based on the acquired vocabulary and grammar

Learning Outcomes

Target Audience

Everyone who is interested to study the German language within its cultural, traditional, historical context.

Course Material /Technology used/ Details Relevant to the course.

Books: Schritte International A2,1
Books are included in the course fee.

Videos, Audios, Movies, Self developed teaching materials, Interactive games, individual and group projects